Electronic Homework.

Lee, Fong-Lok; Heyworth, Rex M.

Journal of Educational Computing Research, v22 n2 p171-86 2000

Outlines conditions that should be present in an electronic tutoring system, and describes the Electronic Homework system. Discusses the modules contained in the system's two main components--the Computer Tutor and Homework Administrator. Gives an example of the tutoring process, and examines the overall effects of using Electronic Homework. (AEF)
